*Studies from all literature searches conducted during the review excluded at the full-text level for pre-established criteria; see the information page or Methods section of the NTP monograph for extraction and search update information. Studies may have been excluded for more than one reason; the first reason identified was recorded.

Studies excluded from the 2020 literature searches for reasons other than pre-established criteria; see the information page or Methods section of the NTP monograph for extraction and search update information.

Publications may contain more than one evidence stream, so the numbers will not total the 547 included studies.
